

GRAHAM SMITH ~ A.C.T.

Graham Smith has been riding, breeding and showing horses for over 30 years. In that time he has shown Galloways and Hacks at all levels at halter and performance including at Canberra, Sydney, Melbourne and Brisbane Royal Shows along with the Victorian Classics, Sydney Nationals, Australian Arabian Championships and the Barastoc Horse of the Year Show.

He has a passion for Arabians although he has bred and owned a variety of other breeds of horses. He has participated as a competitor and as an official in a wide range of horse activities including Hacking, Dressage, Showjumping, Three Day Eventing, Rodeo, Racing and Harness.

Graham's judging appointments have included the Australian National Arabian Championships, Royal shows throughout Australia, EFA Horse of the Year, many prestigious Arabian show events and overseas judging assignments. He holds a range of formal judging qualifications with a variety of breed societies, is an EFA National judge and has Arabian National Panel status.

When asked what his "pet hates" are Graham responds that the top of his list is any form of cruelty and poor sportsmanship.

