

ADAM KING (NSW)

Adam has been involved with the Arabian for approaching Four decades. Whilst still in his teenage years Adam founded King Estate and became a familiar and well-known sight in the winner's circle at shows large and small around the country.

Over the years Adam's passion for and commitment to the Arabian has continued to thrive. He remains a leading advocate and active ambassador involved with all facets of the industry, breeding and promoting both Purebred and Arabian derivatives. Celebrating the athleticism, beauty and pentathlete quality's of the breed he loves has seen Adam and representatives of King Estate active in both the Halter and Performance arenas.

A past president of the NSW Arabian Horse Association and a member of the National Judges Panel. Adam has been involved in Agribusiness at Management level for the past Ten years, previously with Elders and currently with AgriWest Rural, specializing in change management and stakeholder engagement; business tools that would serve well working within the board environment and with the membership.

Since the last elections, Adam first acted as Vice Chairman and is currently the Chairman of the Board of Directors.

Adams skills, commitment and passion for the Arabian would see him be a driving force in bringing recognition as to why the most ancient breed is the perfect horse for the modern world.
